This Is Us Week

This Is Us Week, October 22-26 is showcasing all of Union Mines' amazing qualities.

Monday:

We are Kind

Want to give your friend a word of kindness? Come fill out kindness cards starting today and ending on Thursday. Want to make your declaration that you are part of Union Mine? Come and sign your name on a sign that declares "WE ARE UNION MINE".

Tuesday:

We are Diverse

International Food Fair at lunch is showcasing all the diversity we have on campus. We have cultural, race, religion, all kinds of differences on campus. Let's celebrate our differences and eat some free food!

Wednesday:

We are Informed

Guest Speaker at D-BACK regarding violence free relationships in the Theater. There is a teen suicide memorial in front of the library to remember the people who killed themselves because of the effects of bullying. There will be a did you know campaign around campus.

Thursday:

We are United

At lunch there will be games by the quad. We are all in this together, and we are all united.

Friday:

We are UM

There will be a parade at break for Fall sports and clubs. This is the last day to sign the UM SIGN!!!

LAST FOOTBALL GAME!

The last football game is on October 26th, make sure to support our team at El Dorado. Even though El Dorado High School is our rivals, we should have respect for the football team.

Last school year us students didn't do a good job at being respectful of the opposing team. Leadership and Student Council are trying to make this year the best and the future even better. Staff and students can help Leadership and Student Council make Union Mine a better place to be.

Make sure you bring your school spirit to the game!
